Ensuring tax compliance

We are committed to complying with UK tax obligations and we operate within the top itservices AG Tax Guidelines. The top itservices Ltd. is liable to a broad range of UK taxes including corporation tax, VAT and employer national insurance, business rates. Compliance for us means paying the right amount of tax at the right time, completing accurate returns whilst also recognising available legislative concessions and reliefs.

Systems, processes and controls are central to ensuring compliance and as part of our statutorily required Senior Accounting Officer procedures, we conduct regular system and control checks to ensure robust and appropriate tax accounting arrangements.

Attitude towards tax planning

When considering the structure of our commercial activities, we take account of a number of factors including consideration of the tax laws of the countries in which we operate. We do not take an unreasonable stance on our interpretation of tax legislation and we strive to work within both the letter and spirit of local laws.

We embrace the top itservices AG Tax Guidelines and we do not engage in aggressive tax planning and do not participate in artificial tax avoidance schemes to reduce our UK tax liability. Any tax planning undertaken by us will have commercial and economic substance, and we will have regard to the potential impact on our reputation and broader goals.

Level of tax risk accepted

We ensure that where risks do arise, they are identified, evaluated and managed proactively to be within the overall top itservices AG Tax Guidelines.

For certain transactions where there is a material level of uncertainty or complexity, we will seek external advice to help reduce risk. Based on the dedication and skills of our tax teams, we will apply professional diligence and care in all our actions in relation to tax matters.

Relationship with HMRC

top itservices UK Ltd. engages proactively with HMRC and has a professional, transparent and co-operative working relationship with them. If we are unclear on how tax law should be applied, we may engage with HMRC in advance of undertaking transactions to confirm the correct application of tax law.

In the event of a disagreement with HMRC, we aim to resolve disputes in a timely manner through the provision of full and accurate answers to queries, open and honest dialogue and the willingness wherever possible to reach an agreement without recourse to litigation. Our aim is to be seen as a low risk taxpayer from HMRC's perspective.
